

AAACU Raises Money for the American Cancer Society

Oscoda, Michigan, July 8, 2014: Through the hard work of its employees and the generosity of its membership, Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union was able to raise $2,347.30 for the Iosco Relay for Life.

The Relay for Life is an event held by the American Cancer Society to help celebrate the lives of people who have or are battling cancer, remember loved ones lost, and fight back against the disease. The funds raised during the relay directly benefit cancer patients and their families. The relay provides support, encouragement, comfort, and healing for those whose lives have been affected by cancer.

The Oscoda Branch held several fundraising events for the Relay for Life. Candy bar and popcorn sales, raffles, dress down money, and monetary donations.

Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union employees select four community or charitable organizations that they would like to raise funds and/or accept donations for during each quarter of the year. During the 2nd quarter of 2014, the staff of the Oscoda Branch chose to help those whose lives have been affected by cancer.

AAACU serves members primarily in Alpena, Alcona, Montmorency and Iosco counties with 8 locations - a main office located in Alpena, with branch offices in Ossineke, Lincoln, a Tiger Branch in Alcona Community Schools, Atlanta, Oscoda and Tawas, and an additional branch in Alpena. As of June 30, 2014, AAACU provides service to 26,990 members and has total assets equal to $287,606,900.
